

Assistant City Manager
City of Independence, Missouri

Independence, MO (121,200) The City of Independence is accepting applications for the position of Assistant City Manager. Salary range DOQ/E with excellent fringe benefits. A major urban community within the Kansas City Metropolitan Area, Independence boasts a proud historical heritage while planning and growing for the future.

The Assistant City Manager is responsible for supporting the City Manager in managing operating and capital budgets totaling more than $322 million annually and a workforce of more than 1,050 in the operation of a broad and complex set of municipal activities, including three public utilities (Power & Light, Water Pollution Control and Water) serving a customer base which extends well beyond the corporate boundaries.

A bachelor's degree in public administration with at least three to five years of progressive public sector management experience, or a bachelor's degree in business administration or comparable field with five to seven years of experience in a public management positions is required. A master's degree in public administration is preferred.

Submit a detailed resume with current salary to Mike Casey, Partner, Management Partners at mcasey@managementpartners.com. Electronic submission only. Position open until filled.

The City of Independence is an equal employment opportunity employer.